NEW TRUSTEES NAMED

BALTIMORE, MD, September 10, 2008 – St. Elizabeth School Board of Trustees will welcome three new board members at its September meeting. The new members are: Ms. Tyeisha Jones, Director, Autism & Related Services at The League for People with Disabilities; Ms. Anne Quirk, Vice President in the Commercial Banking Division at M & T Bank, and Sr. Ann Lawrence Kolback, Sisters of St. Francis of Assisi, Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

These three new members join current members: Mr. Terry Dunkin, Mr. David Bowles, Mr. Adam Chavis, Mr. Guy E. Flynn, Mr. John Furman, Mrs. Lesley Geisel, Sr. Patricia McAlpin, OSF, Ms. Laura Pearl, Ms. Kathryn Ries, Sr. Elaine Weber, OSF, Dr. Peter M. Wheeler, and Mr. Fred Winer.

Founded in 1961 by the Franciscan Sisters of Baltimore, St. Elizabeth School is now a ministry sponsored by the Sisters of St. Francis of Assisi. The school is a nonpublic special education school for students in Central Maryland ages 11-21. St. Elizabeth School graduates students who are successful at home, in the work force, and in the community. By maximizing each student's unique abilities, the school enhances the quality of life for middle and high school students with cognitive and other disabilities. The program focuses on the realization of personal potential by integrating academic growth, social/emotional development, functional life skills, and vocational training. Mr. Andrew Parsley is the Principal and Dr. Christine Manlove is the Executive Director.
